

Soul Survivor – Shepton Mallet August 11th – 17th 2009

Dear J7'er,

This year we are planning to attend the Soul Survivor Festival in Shepton Mallet. To make a decision on whether you want to come or not, these are the questions you need to know the answers to

- Where? Souls Survivor the Festival is based in Shepton Mallet, and you will be camping on the Royal Bath and West Showground.
- When? Soul Survivor the festival begins for us on Tuesday August 11th and finishes on Monday 17th. It will mean leaving from Church on the 11th to make the journey to Shepton Mallet, and arriving back on the 17th.
- What? During the festival there will be up to 10,000 young people camping out on the showground with loads of activities and fun stuff, intermingled with worship, teaching and seminars.
- Why? Soul Survivor is a fun interactive way to learn more about yourself and God and discover what it means to put your faith into action in whole lifestyle way.
- How much? Soul Survivor costs £150 before February 1st, or £160 after February 1st. This includes the festival fee £85 before Feb 1st, £92 after Feb 1st and £65 for your meals and transportation etc. This can be paid in two deposits of the fees £85 by the end of January and the remaining balance by the end of June 2008.
- Booking? To book a place to come with us to Soul Survivor you must fill in the consent form attached to this letter, and give them to Steve or Leah along with a cheque for £85. The cheques need to be made payable to Christ the King, so to get the cheap deal you must get the forms and the first instalment to us by January 31st.
